To Mocksville High, we owe the best years of our lives. To Mocksville High, where we spent so many happy hours, where we laughed, cried, learned, and played together. To Mocksville High, where so many lasting friendships were begun. All of our joys and sorrows have been connected with the smiling faces of M. H. S.

Our voices may not be heard in the halls of Mocksville High anymore, but the thoughts and memories of good times will always be with us. We, the Seniors of 1949, may not remember all of our teachers or classmates but we shall never forget our Senior days and all the dignity and honor we felt when we walked across the stage of M. H. S. for the last time as students and received that long awaited and strived for diploma.

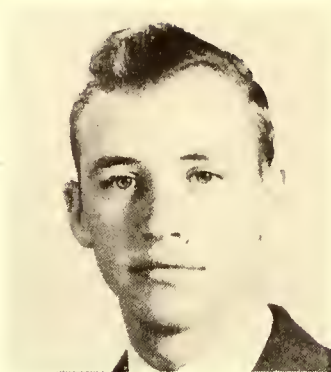

DEDICATION

For his many illustrations and his sound advice;
For his noble attitude and his ceaseless effort;
For his unwavering courage and fervent spirit;
For his many deeds of kindness seen and unseen;
we, the Senior Class of 1949 with pride and grateful hearts, sincerely and humbly dedicate this volume of undying memories to our principal—

HISTORY

It is springtime—nineteen hundred forty-nine, as the ship "1949" lowers its sails of blue and white and prepares to anchor. Aboard this ship, the Seniors of Mocksville High School view in the twilight a stately southern mansion. There is joy mingled with sadness as they recognize the word "Graduation" written upon the banner swaying to and fro in the breeze above the mansion. They realize they have reached their destination.

It seems only yesterday, but in truth it was four years ago, that they boarded the "1949" to begin what seemed to them a long, hard journey. How could that voyage be ending so soon? Suddenly memories that will never die seem to crush from their hearts all the joy of graduation—their school days together are almost over. Unconsciously they forgive the boy who was always out of paper; the girl who sat in front of you and talked most of the time; the rush and work it took to print HI-LIFE; yes, they even forgive those dreaded exam days. They long to sing the old school song once more and to hear the familiar ring of the bell proclaiming the lunch hour. Yet the world is waiting; the future must be met—Grant us a few more moments together as we recall our past adventures, joys and pride.

It was in September of nineteen hundred forty-five, they, then Freshmen, began their voyage toward graduation. There were fifty-five of them at that time. To begin with their leaders on this new and exciting journey were Mrs. D. C. Rankin and Mrs. W. F. Robinson. In the middle of the year, however, two newcomers to the faculty, Miss Madeline Smoot and Mr. G. O. Boose, became their advisers. Even as Freshmen they played a very active part in high school life and received much recognition. Under the kind and helpful direction of Miss Nell Harden a HARDEN CIVICS CLUB was organized. This club, known as the H.C.C., with the help of local merchants sponsored a successful beauty contest and the first "Miss Mocksville" was crowned. Part of the money made on this contest went to help finance the Junior and Senior Banquet and part of it was used to help buy basketball uniforms. Ann Marie Daniel and Ervin Angell were their candidates for the king and queen race that year and though they weren't quite on top they won first prize for their float in the Halloween parade.

As they set sail the next year, now enthusiastic Sophomores, their sponsors were Miss Elizabeth Epps and Mr. Leo Williams. Betty Ann Turner and John Graham Williard were candidates for the king and queen race that year. Their class was really leading that Halloween; Betty Ann was crowned queen of the Carnival and their float won the first prize for the second time.

When they boarded the ship for their Junior year they missed the faces of the ones who were not back: Alvin Howard, Roy Beauchamp, Betty Beck, Gene Allen, Mack Foster, and Charles Bailey. They also missed R. B. Smith who joined the Navy, C. A. Bailey who joined the Army, Ann Marie Daniel and Aldine Orrell who had moved away, and Carroll Johnstone who had transferred to Montreat Junior College for her Junior year. Their Junior year was really wonderful! There are many things about that year they'll always remember. How can they ever forget Misses Flossie Martin and Frances Sugg who were so patient and helpful with their banquet plans? With Colean Smith as president they were led straight to a victorious climax at the Balinese Roof of the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Naturally that means their first Junior-Senior Banquet and what a memorable time it was! They felt as dignified as the Seniors, being so dressed up. Why, it seemed almost like a royal affair! The theme of this "royal affair" was NOW IS THE HOUR. The theme was carried out in the place cards, floor show and each green place card was centered with a white carnation. By the way, have you forgotten the new song that was introduced that night—"He's In My Dreams"? The words were written by Florence Cornatzer. Of course there were a lot of things that went into the making of that dramatic climax, for those Juniors did oodles of work to make it that way. Bob Sofley must have had practice all his life to make such a wonderful Master of Ceremonies. After all practice makes perfect and that Banquet was perfect. Those Juniors put on magazine campaigns, sold candy and soft drinks at ball games, ordered "Wildcat" emblems to sell, but the project they liked most was presenting "The Daffy Dills," which was their Junior Play. Remember the patience with which Miss Jean Brooks directed the play and how popular John Graham Williard made the "St. Vitus Dance"? The class ordered their class rings in the spring and decided upon an oval ring with a ruby, onyx or sapphire set. Their candidates for king and queen that year were Patricia Grant and Gene Wyatt. Once again they succeeded in reaching their goal as Gene Wyatt was crowned king of the Halloween Carnival. Colean Smith and Ervin Angell were selected by the faculty to attend Girls and Boys State during the summer.

As the anchor was lifted in the fall of '48 for the final phase of their graduation journey, these same people who had been such Jolly Juniors, except for Mary Jane Anderson, Mary Carolyn Smith and Gene Wyatt, also Daisy Mae Irvin and Billie Ann Frost who had jumped ahead and had been graduated early, now entered wholeheartedly into the task of being Dignified Seniors. This year Carroll Johnstone returned from Montreat to complete her high school education with her friends in the Senior Class. Mrs. C. M. Tarlton was their sponsor and later Mrs. Frances Luce joined the faculty and helped sponsor them. They began their last and best year with the following officers: President, Bob Sofley; Vice-President, Ervin Angell; Secretary, Betty Honeycutt; Treasurer, Betty Ann Turner. It wasn't long until their class rings came. What an exciting day! And what broad smiles those Seniors wore! They elected Von Shelton and Luella Ferebee to run in the king and queen race. The class shocked the school by going "Politically" minded but the "Seniorcrats" won third place in the race. Ervin Angell received a high honor when the students chose him to be President of the Student Council. My, but what a busy year the Seniors had, but what fun it was! Of course there was an annual to be published and Betty Honeycutt was elected to the task as Editor-in-Chief; Nancy Durham was selected Editor of HI-LIFE. Then there were caps and gowns, cards, and invitations to order, programs to be presented, another wonderful banquet to attend, and loads of things that make up any Senior's year.

Yes, our school days are over and best of friends must part. They realize that as they watch the gangplank lowered for them. As they descend they give the world a brave smile. Of course there is the pride that everyone feels as he receives his diploma but there is the sadness so hard to explain but so dramatically felt. As the old ship moves silently across the water to make room for other ships to come in, we heard in the distance a song; the song they loved so well—"We'll drink a cup of kindness yet, for Auld Lang Syne."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

- I, Ervin Angell, will my ability to remain much in demand to Archie Jones, who is demanding.
- I, Verious Angell, do hereby bequeath my magic violin to James Roberts with the request that he use the bow when playing.

- I, Grady Lee McClamrock, leave to Bobby Mack Foster my enticing smiles to mix with his alluring personality.
- I, James Nichols, do hereby bequeath my money-making schemes, both honest and dishonest, to Delbert Foster.
- I, Ruby Lea Peoples, will my gaiety to Thelma Laird so she will enjoy life as I do.
- I, Bonnie Faye Peoples, will my sewing talent to Clay Keller to help him patch his flat-tires.
- I, Merrell Rice, leave to Janie McBride my well-filled date book.
- I, Mildred Rice, bequeath to Gypsy Clontz my "sleepy-dreamy" eyes so that she will have a clear conscience when her night life calls.
- I, Margaret Roberts, leave my beauty and dignity to Betty Walker so her circle of admirers will increase even more.
- I, Von C. Shelton, will my southern drawl to "you all."
- I, Flora Mae Smith, leave my love for travel to Benny Naylor to help him travel from class to class without becoming tired.
- I, Colean Smith, will my position of last year as Junior Class President to Nancy Latham provided she keeps Miss Martin completely in the know about all banquet plans.
- I, Jettie Mae Smith, leave my explosive giggles to Glenna Jean Robertson so her explosions will be fun for everyone.
- I, Hazel Maria Sofey, do hereby bequeath my ability to eat an abundance of everything at any time and yet remain slender to Sarah Dot Call.
- I, Bob Sofey, being of sound mind and judgment, do will my limbs to Billy Ratledge.
- I, Jo Sparks, do will my habit of going steady to Frances Peoples, although she doesn't seem to have any trouble.
- I, Betty Ann Turner, will my "sweet and lovely" disposition to Lucilla Tucker to verify the fact that she has the said distinctive qualities.
- I, Bill Vick, will my talent to love, honor, and obey to Lois Collins. Be sure to practice daily.
- I, Pearl Walker, will my wit to Frances Walls.
- I, John Graham Williard, do will my sense of humor to Betty McDaniel to mix with her intelligence.
- I, George Woodward, bequeath to Jimmy Powell my outstanding courtesy with the request that it continue to be outstanding.
- I, Lily Faye Whitaker, will not.

PROPHECY

My Dear Mrs. Luce:

Congratulations!! You can't imagine my joy when I heard you had been unanimously chosen for the position of Head of the English Department of the "World Lunatic Asylum"—just a word of warning, don't try to teach those students Latin. It would simply run them crazy.

You might be interested in knowing that your rival for this position, LENA MAE JAMES, became very ill this week. Her physician, BETTY HONEYCUTT, gave her one of her own prescriptions consisting of arsenic and baking powder for her headache. At first the blame for illness was placed upon the "Dreaded Driggins Drug Company," owned by KENNETH DWIGGINS, where LENA had the prescription filled. BEULAH BOGER, the Head Nurse of the John Hopkins Hospital, issued a bulletin last night proclaiming LENA out of danger but very weak.

I suppose you are just dying to see how many familiar faces you will observe in your classes. As far as I know there will be only one graduate of Class '48-'49 of Ole Mocksville Hi to attend this elegant institution since PEARL WALKER discontinued her studies to work in a pie factory. This student will be FAYE WHITAKER. FAYE plans to receive her degree this semester, afterwards she will be the understudy of Movie Star and Singer, BETTY ANN TURNER. Do you remember the picture that made BETTY famous the world over and one of the highest paid ladies of the world? Yes, "Beauty the Beast" was really a terrific picture and did BETTY look beautiful with red hair? By the way, I ran into VON C. SHELTON who is taking over the position as Secretary of Navy. He was with that most handsome and fascinating bachelor of the year, GEORGE WOODWARD, at that swinky night club, "Shamalamoree," owned and operated by the fifth wife of BILL VICK, the touchdown king of the world. No Mrs. Luce, this is strictly confidential and I wouldn't want it repeated, because I think they are keeping it a secret. I received a letter from MARY FRANCES HOCKADAY, the wife of the Secretary of State and president of the "National Gossip Club," saying there is a rumor that BILL is engaged to his secretary and advisor, JETTIE MAE SMITH. MARY says this is strictly in the "know" as JETTIE told that successful hair-designer, RUTH CHAFFIN Gaither; RUTH told one of her distinctive customers, the exotic French model, FLORENZE KARNATIZIER, said to be FLORENCE CORNATZER, one of the Seniors of the Class of '49; Florenze told her favorite escort of the season, GRADY LEE McCLAMROCK, now a statesman and the delegate to the United Nations Security Council who wrote the World Constitution. GRADY told MARY's husband about the engagement and he told MARY.

One of your former English students and a Senior of '49 gave our town quite a shock recently. Do you remember LAVERNE BEAUCHAMP Hicks? She went to Germany last summer to join her husband. It seems CHARLIE LAKEY had constructed for them a house made of glass, which you could see out of but couldn't see in. CHARLIE got the glass reversed!! LAVERNE wanted to sue CHARLIE for such an inexcusable mistake and hired the famous lawyer who serves as legal adviser to the King of England, PATRICIA GRANT Williard, but refused to let PAT handle this case. JOHN seems to share CHARLIE'S viewpoint. Gossip has it that PAT and JOHN were actually separated an hour over the matter.

Do you recall how quiet CARL BOGER was about twenty years ago? Well, he now owns that large farm just outside of the city limits of Mocksville. My but CARL has become a "Poping" success and has made millions!! He raises cheesed popcorn, a product made only by CARL. He had quite a bad season this time. Somehow he dropped part of his lunch consisting of pimento cheese into the popcorn rows instead of plain cheese. CARL tells me his cousin, EDWIN BOGER, has now retired to his southern home in Florida. EDWIN organized the "All-American Basketball Teeme," an unbeaten team for ten years, evidently girls may be players on this team because MILDRED RICE, an interior decorator and ball player, was high scorer last year. MARIE BAKER Seamon, a neighbor of CARL, came over while I was there. MARIE is raising a brood of sailors and she really praises the new "Board-Bottom Trowsers" created by the world's most outstanding citizens, COLEAN SMITH, discoverer of "Woodfribcated" cloth.

Mrs. Luce, you just don't know what you missed by not attending the "Autumn Ball" given at the Governor's Mansion last month. Everyone was there, even that landscape architect, DORMAN BROWN, who has just recently returned from Alaska and all that man would talk about was the beautiful scenery he is creating up there. I believe that DORMAN told me he intended to take GLENNA MAE BOGER back with him as his bookkeeper because his excess amount of money is getting to be quite a problem. CAROLYN LAIRD, a former school bus driver of Mocksville Hi, was present. CAROLYN is now a Congresswoman and is driving Congress mad. She is insisting that the President, CLEGG HOWARD, should have his wife, LUELLA FEREBEE, cook his breakfast. CAROLYN says it will look more home-like; Congress says it's suicide. JO SPARKS, owner and operator of the Bowens Bowling Alley, gave to each person present, a recipe of that delicious Devils Food Cake, dreamed up by that breath-taking violinist who plays with the New York Symphony, VERIOUS ANGELL. The ball was almost over, when CARROLL JOHNSTONE, the illustrator who illustrated "Simplified Agr. for Everyone," written by Professor ERVIN ANGELL, arrived. CARROLL looked magnificent with that new coiffure—she tells us her hair-dresser is none other than BONNIE FAYE PEOPLES. Everyone really had the time of their life except MARGARET ROBERTS. MARGARET brought her shorthand pad and every time anyone opened their mouth she wrote down what they said and she told me she was practicing because she hoped to be chosen the Commercial Teacher at Harvard University.

I read an editorial in the "New York Hourly Times" by NANCY DURHAM, a former editor of HI-LIFE. She proclaims that the new chemical "Sugar-h20-Sulfuric Acid Plus TNT, introduced by His Excellency, ED ELLIS, Ph.D., as the greatest invention since the discovery of the Atomic Bomb. NANCY really has that paper "in the groove"—there is some talk that she will offer to FLORA MAE SMITH the position of a correspondent with France. Speaking of inventions, JAMES NICHOLS has invented some sort of device that will translate French. They say it is really a wonder.

While bravely facing the wind in Chicago not long ago I came in contact with MERRELL RICE who is working as Secretary, Boss and What-not, at the Brock Candy factory. MERRELL gave me permission to tour the factory and during my tour, I noticed a large factory beside it and was told it belonged to CAROLYN COOK who is making those delicious cookies "Cooky's Cookies." I suppose the reason for CAROLYN'S success is that the recipes are cooked up by DOLLY CARTER; DOLLY gives her former Home Ec. teacher, Mrs. Tarlton, credit.

Horrors!! I just heard a bulletin saying that BOB SOFLEY and BILL CLICK, both Professor of Physics, have arrived back from their trip to the moon in the "Clickespheresonic Rocket." RUBY LEA PEOPLES, who accompanied them, flatly refused to return.

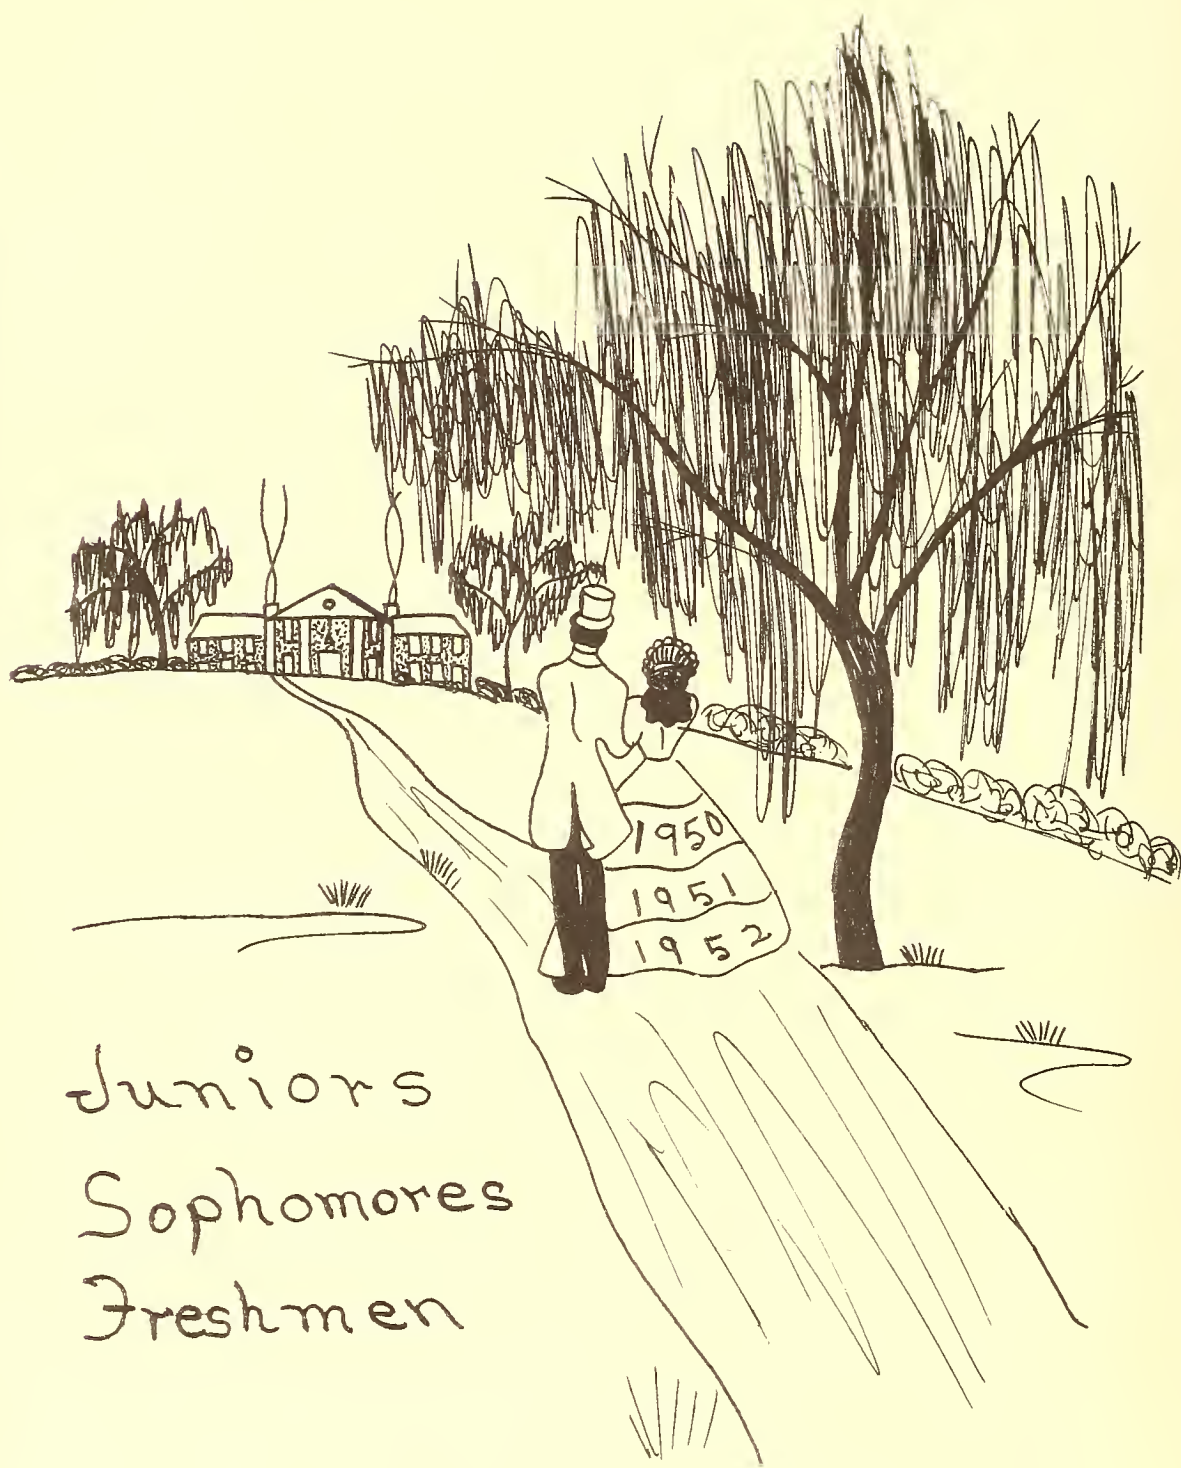

Humm—I'm getting sort of sleepy. Guess I had better "hit the hay" so I won't be late for work tomorrow . . . Television shows sure are getting to be a bore to me.

Write me the latest, as I don't seem to get around much anymore.

Just me—

Your gossip adviser—

The Mocksville 4-H Club, with approximately 120 members, illustrates the keen interest shown by teen-age students in the agricultural life of their community. Organized about nine years ago by Miss Florence Mackie, county home demonstration agent, the Mocksville Club has grown with the years and has been one of the more active organizations of the school.
